

Quest Facility

Brentwood, TN

Quest Sport Center, located in the upscale Brentwood/Cool Springs area of Tennessee was converted into a Class A office space. This conversion added 44,000 square feet of office space. An open and flexible floor plan on the upper level will allow for multiple office arrangement options. The lower level mainly contains the sports center. Exposed ceilings in the gym area, a 6,000 square foot turf training area, a 4,000 square foot weight room, and a 8,000 square foot basketball/volleyball are included in the sports center. The expansion was designed by Collaborative Studio.
